Rev. Chas. Martin Dead.

Rev. Charles Martin died at Arcadia Florida, last Friday of paralysis and the remains were brought to Paints-ville for burial. Rev. Martin had requested before his death that his body be brought back to Paintsville and buried by the side of his wife who died in that state five years ago, and her remains brought ack for burial.

The remains were accompanied by fr. and Mrs. J. L. Jones, personal friends of Rev. Martin. Mr. Jones was here five years ago with Rev. Martin when the remains of Mrs. Martin were prought here for burial.

The Paintsville Masonic lodge had charge of the funeral and burial. Services were held in the Missionary Bap tist church, the Rev. Bolton having the services in charge. Burial in the city cemetery.

Rev. Martin was tthe first paster of the Missionary Baptist church of this city a number of years ago and built the present church in which his funeral was conducted Monday. While pastor of the church here he married Mrs. Kate Rice, afterwards moving to Florida where he had charge of dif-ferent churches.

He had many friends in Paintsville, and although he labored in other fields he always claimed this city as his home,-Paintsville Herald.
